WEATHERING WINTER 2008/9

Successful communities will respond with better affordable, clean energy, and a change in attitudes.

Alaska's biggest challenge is to get the state's energy infrastructure to work better. Alaska's largest barrier is the state's energy infrastructure. It's not just the infrastructure, it's the way we use it. We need to be able to use it in a way that is sustainable and that can be used in the future.
